by this Court's Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1107(a) and 1108 Authorizing the Debtors to Employ and Compensate Certain Professionals Utilized in the ordinary Course of the Debtors' Business (together, the "OCP Order") and the Amended Administrative Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 331 Establishing Revised Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Professionals and Official Committee Members (the "Interim Compensation Order"). Baker has represented the Debtors as an ordinary course professional on numerous matters and has been retained and compensated by the Debtors pursuant to the OCP Order. In November 2011, the Debtors sought to engage Baker in connection certain transactions involving the disposition of certain of the Debtors' assets and businesses (collectively, the "Transaction") and applied for Baker to be retained as special counsel pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327(e) [Docket No. 27958] (the "Retention Application"). Shortly after filing the Retention Application, however, Baker was advised that the Transaction was no longer being pursued. As a result, the Debtors and Baker and withdrew the Retention Application [Docket No. 28063], as the additional services were no longer required. Baker now seeks compensation for services rendered and expenses incurred in excess of the Monthly OCP Limit in connection with the substantial time spent by Baker attorneys preparing for the Transaction in November 2011.

JURISDICTION & PREDICATES FOR RELIEF

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1408. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

2. The predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 1107(a), 1108 and 105(a) of title 11 of the United States Code §§ 101, et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") and Rule 2016-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”).

3. This Application is made pursuant to the OCP Order, which provides that the Debtors are authorized but not required to pay each Ordinary Course Professional for services rendered up to $50,000 per month . . . during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors cannot pay more than such amounts for services rendered without an order of this Court authorizing such higher amount . . .

OCP Order, p. 2.

4. The Interim Compensation Order provides that

[p]rofessionals that are retained and employed in the ordinary course of the Debtors’ business, whose fees and disbursements exceed the cap(s) contained in the OCP Order, shall seek payment of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the Revised Compensation Procedures.

Interim Compensation Order, p. 9.

BACKGROUND

A. Baker’s Retention Application and Work To Be Performed In Connection with the Transaction

5. Throughout these chapter 11 cases, Baker has represented the Debtors on a number of matters and has been retained and compensated by the Debtors pursuant to the OCP Order.

6. In the beginning of November 2011, the Debtors believed that they would require additional assistance from Baker in connection with the Transaction, and that such additional assistance would result in fees and expenses in excess of the Monthly OCP Limit. Accordingly, the Debtors filed the Retention Application to retain Baker as special counsel pursuant to section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Transaction would have required Baker to provide the assistance to the Debtor in connection with the following:

- a. certain proposed sales and purchases of assets in the U.S. and non-U.S. jurisdictions, including drafting documents, effectuating due diligence, participating in negotiations and providing other services in support of possible transactions;
- b. antitrust and competition law compliance, strategy and filings in the U.S. and foreign jurisdictions;
- c. advice regarding certain aspects of the Debtors' non-US subsidiaries, including advice relating to corporate formalities and commercial arrangements; and
- d. certain tax matters in the U.S. and in non-U.S. jurisdictions.

B. Baker's Qualifications to Assist the Debtors with the Transaction

7. In seeking to retain Baker to assist them with the Transaction, the Debtors believed that Baker was particularly well suited to serve as the Debtors' special counsel. Baker is one of the world's largest law firms with approximately 4,000 attorneys in 72 offices in 42 countries. Baker's knowledge, resources and international reach permit it to deliver high quality legal services throughout the world with fluency, consistency, confidence and sensitivity for cultural, social and legal practice differences outside of the U.S. Baker has extensive expertise in virtually all aspects of the law that may have arisen in the Transaction.

8. Baker had previously represented the Debtors and has considerable knowledge concerning the Debtors' businesses and assets and had the requisite familiarity to provide efficient services related to any potential transactions and other matters that would have required Baker's services. If the Debtors would have been required to retain different counsel regarding the matters in which Baker was to represent them, the Debtors would have had to expend significant resources in helping new counsel become familiar with such matters.

C. Cancellation of the Transaction

9. At the end of November 2011, the Debtors determined that the Transaction would not go forward. As such, the Debtors withdrew the Retention Application.

10. In preparing for the Transaction and drafting the Retention Application, Baker rendered services to the Debtor that resulted in $96,728.61 in fees and $1,118.16 in actual and necessary expenses. Invoices detailing the services rendered by Baker are attached hereto as Exhibit B, and invoices detailing the actual and necessary expenses incurred by Baker are attached hereto as Exhibit C.

11. The Monthly OCP Limit caps monthly compensation to ordinary course professionals at $50,000 during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. OCP Order, p.2.

RELIEF REQUESTED

12. By this Application, Baker seeks entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing the Debtors to compensate Baker for services rendered and for reimbursement of expenses incurred from November 1, 2011 through November 30, 2011, in excess of the Monthly OCP Limit imposed by the OCP Order..

BASIS FOR RELIEF

13. Baker submits that authorization to exceed the Monthly OCP Limit is warranted in this instance. Preparing for the Transaction required Baker to coordinate with and seek advice from numerous attorneys across offices in the United States, Russia, Japan, Spain, Mexico, France, the UK, and various other foreign jurisdiction. Such coordination required substantial efforts on the part of these Baker attorneys.

14. Baker should not be prevented from being properly compensated in excess of the Monthly OCP Limit under the foregoing circumstances. Indeed, the OCP Order specifically contemplates that the Debtors may need to pay certain of its professionals in excess of such limits should the circumstances require it. Baker's efforts were expended at the request of the Debtors and in pursuit of the Transaction that, if successful, may have resulted in a significant benefit to the Debtors estates. Baker respectfully requests that the Court approve the portion of Baker's fees in excess of the limits imposed by the OCP Order.

WHEREFORE, Baker respectfully request entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing the Debtors to compensate Baker for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses as special counsel to the Debtors from November 1, 2011 through November 30, 2011, in excess of the Monthly OCP Limit imposed by the OCP Order.
